

22 APRIL 2024
6:15-7:45PM
HYBRID EVENT
Bocconi University
Aula Franceschi
Via Sarfatti 25

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT ELECTIONS WHAT THE RESULT MIGHT MEAN FOR EUROPE'S FUTURE

As Europe prepares for the 2024 elections of the European Parliament in June, global tensions, climate protests, and sluggish economic growth dominate public discourse. European voters seem increasingly polarized on how to deal with these challenges, and their vote choices will likely reshape the composition of the European Parliament. This panel brings together European thought leaders to discuss the implications of the elections for the EU's future.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

REGISTRATION FORM
to receive the link for the live streaming.

SPEAKERS

CATHERINE DE VRIES

Dean for International Affairs and Professor of Political Science at Bocconi University

SYLVIE GOULARD

Vice President of the Institute for European Policymaking at Bocconi University

ISABELL HOFFMANN

Senior Expert, Project eupinions, Bertelsmann Stiftung

CHAIR

ELEANOR SPAVENTA

Full Professor, Department of Law, Bocconi University

Università
Bocconi

IEP@BU
Institute for European Policymaking